A Heartfelt Letter from [client's name], Founder of [business name]

For the past 9 years I have been at the forefront of training [client type]. I implement innovative and time-tested [client type] techniques not found anywhere else. It's both a passion and ambition to discover and introduce programs to enrich lives on a global scale.

At this time of year it's common to talk about New Year's resolutions. What are your New Year's resolutions for 2007? Weight loss? More income? Less Stress? Happiness in an existing relationship or maybe finding that perfect someone?

If you didn't make New Year's resolutions, why not? Are you tired of making them, just to abandon the idea a few weeks later? Regardless, we are already 30 days into the New Year.

Many of my current and former coaching clients ask me the same question, "[client name], what do I need to do to accomplish my goals this year, and what's more, how can I have fun doing it? I have the answer:

Create a New Year's Revolution

But what's the secret? How do you create a revolution to help you re-invent yourself? More on that in a moment. First, I want to ask you a few questions and then tell you a personal story.

Have you ever wished LIFE could be easier?

Have you ever wondered – as I did – how some people seem to have the Midas touch and are always in the right place at the right time?

9 years ago, I felt the same way. When I first started my business, I had a newborn baby. Against all odds and conventional wisdom, I replaced my Fortune 500 corporate income in less than 1 year.

People were surprised at what I accomplished; they even congratulated me.

But I didn't have the energy to congratulate myself. I was exhausted and couldn't imagine how in the world I would manage another year of the same. It was just not possible.

Looking back, I did many things the hard way.

I worked late nights and weekends and felt guilty all the time. When I was with my family I felt guilty for not working and – yep, you guessed it – when I was working I felt guilty for not being with my family!

At one point I was ready to give up. I knew I couldn't continue much longer at the same frantic pace. Then, it hit me! I realized I needed to apply the same process to my business that I successfully used with my coaching clients to help them overcome personal challenges and explore innovative solutions for their problems.

And it WORKED!

In fact, it worked so quickly and so smoothly, I wasn't sure it was working at all. But, the results spoke for themselves.

There was no denying I discovered a systematic, highly effective method that if shared would undoubtedly transform the lives of millions globally. It began to take on a life of its own and I had to remind myself repeatedly it wasn't a dream. There were so many external confirmations; I knew I was on to something BIG, REAL BIG.

Looking back, I realize it's even bigger than I originally thought. It's bigger than just my work. It's really about creating a revolution. I'm not talking about the bloodshed and violence typically associated with revolutions. I'm talking about a peaceful revolution that allows people to reinvent themselves.

Now, back to the question of how to re-invent yourself.

Many people tell me they are TIRED of trying to have it all. No matter what they do, they can't seem to maintain thriving personal and professional lives AND the life of their dreams. I now know and understand the secrets to having it all. A big part of it is bringing an eloquent, synchronistic inner and an outer approach to everything you do – That's the ATTRACTION REVOLUTION!

This is a FREE opportunity to connect on an energetic level with the top spiritual teachers alive today that are at the forefront of the ATTRACTION REVOLUTION. Consider it your gift from the Universe. Some of the names are very familiar – like Jack Canfield and Janet Atwood and Bill Harris – and others you may not recognize yet, but all are committed to your success and empowerment by helping you apply the Law of Attraction.

Speaking of Jack Canfield and applying the Law of Attraction, we're all familiar with Oprah. She speaks the language of Spirit, but she's also a smart and savvy business woman. Her systematic introduction of topics "woo-woo" or "too spiritually abstract" has to be well-thought and orchestrated in a way that speaks to the average person. That has already happened.

The Law of Attraction Oprah show featuring Jack Canfield, Rhonda Byrne, James Ray and other influential leaders was taped on January 31, 2007.

THIS Is Revolutionary!

As soon as something appears on her show, it is considered mainstream, so this is truly the beginning of a tremendous movement toward personal and professional empowerment.

You can read about the Law of Attraction but to truly harness its innate power, you must consistently apply intentional focus. The FREE empowerment gifts provided by these teachers support you in making the internal behavioral and awareness transitions that directly influence your external actions.

We are here to support you to accomplish your goals with more ease and flow by tapping into the ATTRACTION REVOLUTION.
